

Lindsay Waldrop

Senior Advisor,
Human Trafficking
Division, U.S. Office
for Victims of Crime

Topics of expertise

- OVC mechanics
- Program development/management
- Training and Technical Assistance

Background

Lindsay is a Senior Advisor in the Human Trafficking Division at the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) with a focus on anti-trafficking training and technical assistance initiatives. Ms. Waldrop has served as a Federal employee on OVC's Human Trafficking Division for close to ten years, with past her portfolio focusing on state-wide systems change and youth. Ms. Waldrop's professional career has focused on US-based trafficking efforts for the past twenty years. Before formally joining the office as a federal employee, Ms. Waldrop professionally supported OVC's efforts, first through her work at the Office for Victims of Crime Training and Technical Assistance Center, where she provided assistance to grantees and the larger services field on the crime of human trafficking, and then as one of OVC's first Human Trafficking Fellows, where she provided direct subject matter expertise to guide OVC's trafficking initiatives.

Types of support available

- Supporting grants management and administration
- Building connections in the anti-trafficking field

Natalia Aguirre

Improving
Outcomes Grant
Program Monitor,
Human Trafficking
Division, U.S. Office
for Victims of Crime

Topics of expertise

- MDTs, collaboratives, and Family Justice Centers
- Program development & management
- Polyvictimization

Background

Natalia Aguirre is the Improving Outcomes Grant Program Monitor in the Human Trafficking Division at the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC). Natalia has extensive experience working with multi-disciplinary professionals to increase their capacity for providing victim services; improve operations, efficiencies, and build stronger collaborative environments. Previously, she was the Director for the Family Justice Center Alliance, at Alliance for Hope International, where she contributed to the expansion of victim services in Family Justice Centers across the country and around the world. In this role, Natalia also provided professional training on the development and creation of Family Justice Centers, polyvictimization, program evaluation, leadership, trauma-informed care, and how to better serve survivors. There she led a Demonstration Initiative for the Office for Victims of Crime with six Family Justice Center communities around the U.S.

Types of support available

- Developing, sustaining, expanding MDTs/ collaboratives
- Application of a polyvictimization framework to human trafficking work
- Developing and supporting program expansion improvingoutcomesTTA@rti.org

facebook.com/improvingoutcomesTTA

SUPPORTING STATES TO IMPROVE OUTCOMES
FOR CHILD AND YOUTH VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

This resource was produced by RTI International under 15POVC-22-GK-01576-HT, awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed throughout this event are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.